

Andy Niner

“Niner Wine Estates is a family owned company. We make 100% estate grown wines from Paso Robles and Edna Valley.”

Pam Niner

“Niner Wine means an estate bottled wine as good as we can possibly make. We were determined to make the best quality wine that could conceivably be done using our own grapes.”

Richard Niner

“We farm three completely different vineyards. We have an uncompromising approach to quality in both the vineyard and the winery and both are integrated in our approach.”

Andy Niner

“We started from the ground up with sustainability in mind and think long term always about it and we have an uncompromising approach to hospitality in both our tasting room and restaurant.”