

ANDY NINER

PRESIDENT

second generation of the family, andy started helping his parents with the day-to-day operation of the company in 2013. he is responsible for making sure all the different parts of the business are working together and moving in the right direction.

After studying economics at Colby College in Maine, Andy started his career working in finance for Cambridge Associates in Boston. He then moved to California and worked as a product manager in a small sunglass company in San Luis Obispo, earned his MBA from U.C. Berkeley and spent several years working in strategic planning for Levi Strauss & Company in San Francisco.

His love for the Central Coast and the importance of the family business ended up being the catalyst for joining the team. He joined the company full time in the spring of 2013. Outside of work Andy bikes, climbs, wears a puffy vest and old raggedy New Balance shoes to Winemaker dinners, cooks and spends time at home with his daughter Cora.
